

A&E GROUNDBREAKING SERIES 'THE SOPRANOS®' PREMIERES ON JANUARY 10, 2007 AT 9:00 PM

SEE IT FROM THE BEGINNING - EVERY WEDNESDAY AT 9:00PM ET/PT.

You're stressed out? Try walking in mob boss Tony Soprano's shoes. His uncle wants to kill him, his Machiavellian mother is driving him mad, the FBI's getting close, and he's got some pressing "waste management" issues to dispose of, all the while trying to be a loving father and attentive husband. No wonder he's blacking out and secretly seeing a shrink. It's back to the beginning as James Gandolfini, Edie Falco, and Lorraine Bracco star in one of the most critically acclaimed drama series of all time.

If you have missed any episodes of THE SOPRANOS, you can now start from the beginning! On Wednesday, January 10 at 9:00PM, A&E will become the exclusive off-network home to the most critically acclaimed drama on television, THE SOPRANOS®, on the eight-year anniversary of the initial series launch on HBO.

Beginning with the first episode of season one, A&E will present THE SOPRANOS with back-to-back episodes every Wednesday at 9:00PM. The episodes will run in sequential order with appropriate editing for content. However, they will not be edited for time. The series was initially shot with alternative versions of many scenes and pre-recorded alternative dialogue minimizing the need for editing. If you are a real SOPRANOS junkie, you'll want to visit their website at www.aetv.com.

In April of 2007, THE SOPRANOS will be presented in High Definition on CRTV Channel 288 as well as analogue on Channel 17. All episodes prior to April of 2007 will be in standard definition. In order to view THE SOPRANOS in HD, you will require an HDTV, an HD box and subscribe to CRTV digital services. For information on THE SOPRANOS or to order HDTV, call CRTV at 923-8899.
